A captivating Country Estate situated in the hills north of Santa Barbara de Nexe and a fifteen minute drive from Faro Airport. Comprising of a Main Residence, Guesthouse and extensive & beautifully created landscaped Gardens, it is plain to see why this magnificent property took so many years to conceive, assemble, construct and complete. Apart from the exceptional Design, Architecture and Scale of the entire Estate, above all else is the incredible quality and attention to detail which has been lavished on each and every aspect of the project from start to finish. Such ambitious undertakings are few and far between and while it is most unlikely a project of this character, quality and scale might never again be contemplated,...
